

Contract 2 - AddOrder

Aspect	Details
Operation	AddOrder(id, productsIds, productsAndAmount, date)
Cross References	UC: Shortage Order Issue
Preconditions	• A shortage report exists in the system. • One or more products are below their minimum stock level. • The requested products exist in the system. • The required quantities are known and valid. • At least one supplier has a contract that includes all the requested products. • The order ID is not already used.
Postconditions	• A new Order instance was created. • The order ID, products, quantities and order date were initialized. • The cheapest suitable supplier was selected according to the suppliers' contracts and quantity discounts. • The selected supplier was associated with the order. • The price of each product was calculated according to the relevant contract. • The expected stock quantity after delivery is greater than the minimum stock level of each ordered product. • The order was added to the system's shortage-order collections. • The order was saved in the database. • The created order ID was returned.